

SEC Settles with Former Apple GC

News In Brief:

Date: 08/25/2008

SEC Settles with Former Apple GC

Nancy Heinen, former general counsel at Apple, Inc., has settled with the SEC over alleged backdating options issues. Heinen will pay $2.2 million to the SEC and not serve for five years as an officer of any company, while not admitting fault in any way.

General Counsel and Litigation Team Join Dewey & LeBoeuf

Barbara Caulfield and three litigation attorneys from the company Affymetrix have resigned and joined Dewey & LeBoeuf. Affymetrix has hired the group of attorneys to handle its litigation.

Entertainment Software Association Names New GC

The US-based video games group Entertainment Software Association has named Kenneth Doroshov as its new general counsel. Doroshov was former senior counsel to the US Department of Justice.